Quote from Godfrey

can't comment on the correct Greek

I'll take a shot.

The word used is κατεπικνοῦτο:

Henry George Liddell, Robert Scott, A Greek-English Lexicon, καταπικν-όω

"If all pleasure (singular, as in describing the general phenomenon of pleasure) 'could be κατεπικνοῦτο'"

So the sense is compress, consolidate, "fill in the intervals".
