FYI, for readers from Europe. In Autun, France, in 1990 a kèpos was found with two Epicurean mosaics, with the Sententia Vatican 14 and Kuria Doxa 5.

If corona allows, I try to visit it in the spring. Here is an English text about the location.

The mosaic of the Greek Philosophers decorated the floor of a wealthy Gallo Roman villa of Augustodunum, capital of the Edui Gallic tribe.
