

Nate's "First Generation Epicureans" Research

Post by "Cassius" of February 27, 2024 at 4:57 PM

I am posting this as a forum thread to be sure it gets the attention it deserves, as posts in the "Files" section don't always come up in regular searches. Also, I am including in this post Elli's initial comments on some of the names mentioned:

"First Generation" Epicureans - Epicureanfriends.com

Greetings, all! I created a document that organizes a list of "First Generation" Epicureans (with citations). As always, I hope you find it to be useful. Let...

www.epicureanfriends.com

Elli Pensa wrote:

This is an outstanding work. Bravo, my friend Nathan!

<http://www.epicureanfriends.com/thread/3734-nate-s-first-generation-epicureans-research/?postID=29440#post29440>

Nathan wrote [...Khairédēmos of Sámos - Kathēgētēs; Brother of Epíkouros; named for their mother (DL X.3, 27)...]

The name of Epicurus' mother was "Khairestráte" and thanks to the name of mother, her son would be named as "Khairéstratos".

Since, another name is Khairédēmos and another name is Khairéstratos.

- Khairéstratos means the joy of army or the greetings to the army.

- And Khairédēmos means the joy of démos or the greetings to démos.

- We have the epicurean Philódēmos that means the friend of démos. From the word Dēmos comes the word "Demokratēa"(Democracy) and the word "demótiis" that means the one who was registered in the registers of a démos (municipality) of ancient Athens.

And as the ancient greek names have a meaning that is connected with the characteristics/character of a man/woman that are following all of his/her life, and till the end. Since we see what is the end of someone to understand how all of his/her life was. Because we (epicureans) say it is the same training which teaches to live well and to die well.

Thus now, we have to examine the names of "the three caballeros" and "Saludos ex Amigos"  page not found or Nathan wrote: [..."Ex-Phíloi" (φίλοι) or Ex-"Friends" / Former Associates of Epíkouros.

*Hēródotos of Lampsakós - Recipient of the famous letter; left for Platonism (DL X.4-5)

Metródōros of Stratoníkeia - A disciple of Epíkouros who "went over" to Karneádēs (DL X.9)

*Timokrátēs of Lampsakós - Brother of Metród., Batís, and Mento.; left for Platonism (DL X.4-5)...]

- Hēródotos means the one that is given or assigned to the goddess Hera...but after Herodotus rejected the epicurean philosophy and left for platonism, he remains as a given/assigned to the goddess Hera. And in the end what does his name mean? Stupid!  page not found or type unknown

- Metródōros means the one that is a gift to his mother... but after he rejected epicurean philosophy and left to Karneades, he remains a gift that is under the skirts of his mother. And in the end what does his name mean? Stupid!

- Timokrátēs means the power of honor or simply to hold your honor...but, after he rejected the epicurean philosophy and left to Platonism, he remains just to hold his honor... but honor - without prudence and justice - does not lead to a pleasant life. And in the end what does his name mean? Stupid!

If you have problems finding this in the future you can also find it in the List of Special Resources page here:

<http://www.epicureanfriends.com/thread/3734-nate-s-first-generation-epicureans-research/?postID=29440#post29440>

- Epicureanfriends.com
www.epicureanfriends.com