

Welcome Mousikos!

I'm glad to be here. And yes, all the experiences I've had, good and bad, have shaped who I am today.

I don't claim to be Greek tho. I'm actually Dutch, tho I spent six years in the beautiful city of Thessaloniki. When I was there, I used to live near Moni Vlatadon, and I have fond memories of walking downhill from Ano Poli to the university or the city center. Especially on clear days when you can see Mount Olympus. And the food, and the music... I haven't been there in many years, but I would love to visit again.

I also spent some years in Finland and England. But now I'm living in China, teaching English since 2010.

So after all that, I consider myself more of a "global citizen".
