Quote from Cassius

eternal and enduring

Cassius you brought up last Wednesday how Epikouros uses these terms. Here is the distinction as far as I understand it.

|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------|--|
| αἰώνιος (αἰωνιᾶ, αἰώνιον) | perpetual (moving, multiple) | ΑΙΩΝΙΟΣ characterized by being forever |
| αἰδῖος (ος, ον) | eternal (static, singular) | Αἰδῖος characterized by forever [heavenly] |
