Post by “Cassius” of August 20, 2019 at 2:18 PM

Every month I tell myself that I am going to be on top of the 20th and have something fascinating to post, and every month I get so busy that I hardly remember until it is here. Maybe we need to come up with a PRE-20th sequence of reminders or events to help us burn the 20th into our minds so clearly it can't be forgotten! 😊
