

Navigating Family Prayer

Post by “Elayne” of December 22, 2019 at 7:32 PM

Joshua, when I hear people say things like that, I am so grateful my family is atheist. At least Epicurus was dealing with people who believed in multiple gods, and he wasn't atheist in the way that would have been meant back then. He just had a different definition of gods, since his were material.

He still participated in the compulsory rites. But you are in a different situation, since mass is not compulsory by law.

What did you come up with? And how did it go?