

Welcome JLR / Lee!

Post by "Lee" of December 30, 2019 at 10:01 AM

I have read the first chapter of Dewitt's book and have the complete copy on order. I am enjoying it very much and appreciate your guidance.

I found it interesting (and reassuring) that Dewitt saw overlap between The Nicomachean Ethics and Epicurean teachings. I have studied Aristotle a good amount and think he got many things correct even if he overstated the role of politics and underemphasized the importance of pleasure and tranquility.