

The Dangers of Misdirected Increase of Knowledge

Thank you for the Lucian recommendation, Cassius. I look forward to reading it. Is this the same Lucian that was Seneca's nephew?

I confess to still having a soft spot for Seneca. To be honest, it was his letters that saved me from the Church! (How Ironic that I found him in a church book sale.) If he writes half so well as Seneca, I will love Lucian too.

I mention this as a fine example. I love reading Seneca. Should I not read him again because it might make me a depressed Stoic who feels a failure because she hates politics?!
