

My Epicurean Blog - The Weekly Epicurean

Post by “Charles” of June 3, 2020 at 12:14 PM

Inspired by Robert Hanrott and Mike Anyayahan I decided to finally make my own blog, hopefully I will remember to update it (the daily epicurean was an open domain but I thought that was too much).

<https://weeklyepicurean.wordpress.com/>

I did this as I felt compelled to write some more as well as brush up my skills with wordpress. Feel free to share this on the FB Group.
