

Online Sources for Study of Philodemus Materials

Post by “Cassius” of November 15, 2020 at 7:47 AM

I'm starting this thread to place here links to the best online sources for review of the Philodemus materials from Herculaneum. Currently that is spread out over other threads and we need to pin this to the top of the Philodemus section as a starting point.

1. Foundational Lists of Resources
    1. The Herculaneum Society \(England\)
  2. Philodemus On Piety
  3. Philodemus On Methods of Inference
  4. Philodemus On Rhetoric
  5. Epicurus On Nature

Yes that's definitely a foundational link. It seems like within the last year I found a link to a German website that had facsimiles of the originals, so any site that attempts to organize them has to go in the list.

As people add to this list I will go back and update the first post in the thread.

A good summary article on Philodemus from the Internet Encyclopedia of Philosophy.
