

One year?

Post by “Don” of February 25, 2021 at 7:58 AM

I see it was a year ago today that I joined the forum. So, 799 posts later, it appears time certainly flies! On this day, I want to express my gratitude for @Cassius's efforts in maintaining this platform, and to all my Epicurean Friends for pleasurable intellectually-stimulating conversation this past year. Here's to another year of Epicurean exploration! Carpe annum! Εὐ πράττειν καὶ σπουδαίως ζῆν!

Wow the time does fly! Thank you for all your contributions Don - seems like you and several others all got active at nearly the same time, and the last year or so has been one of our most productive periods. If you could just find a way to replicate yourself about a hundred times we'd be well on our way to domination of the philosophic world! 😊
