

Iphigenia (1977 Movie)

I was not aware that there was a major Greek movie dramatizing the story of Iphigenia. I have not watched it so I cannot recommend it, but I thought I would create a thread about it and see if anyone has (or takes) the time to see it.

Might be an interesting way to internalize a major scene from De Rerum Natura.

It's a Michael Cacoyannis (Zorba the Greek) film (from the play by Euripides), and stars Irene Pappas as Clytemnestra (I don't know the other actors). It has an 84% rating on Rotten Tomatoes. It seems pretty clearly a dark film (given its subject), which means I'll probably refrain these days.
