Thank you Amicus,

I found this site while trying to answer a specific question, but I have long meant to deepen my knowledge of Epicurus.

I know little more than what was learned in a class on ancient Greek philosophy taken long ago.

I like most all the philosophers from that class, with Heraclitus, Parmenides, Socrates, Plato, and Epicurus being perhaps my favorites.

I'll try to read some of the suggested texts in the next couple weeks.

Best,

BW
