

Epigram on the Twentieth

Post by “Don” of December 11, 2020 at 7:13 AM

Joshua what a service you're providing by posting all these! I just made it through all your current threads. I was going to like and thank every one, but I thought that might be overkill. Please take this post as a virtual pan-thank-you! 😊 I especially appreciate your including the original texts!! 👍👍 I may go through and pick out a few favorite lines or words. For example, line 3 has εικαδα δειπνιζων (eikada deipnizōn) is "the feast of the twentieth". The fact that it's the ενιαυσιον "annual" is a little surprising but maybe they had one big one a year where everyone was invited in addition to monthly smaller events.