

In Imitation of Lucretius-Bevil Higgons, 1670 to 1735

Post by “Joshua” of January 15, 2021 at 10:12 PM

Side note: he precedes his poem with a Latin inscription from Ovid:

"Unus erat toto naturae vultus in orbe—quem dixere Chaos;"

"There was one countenance upon all of the world—which they call Chaos;"