

Where Is Epicurus In The "School of Athens"?

Myths and fairytales (Jesus and Saul/Paul) mixed with books and movies (Umberto Eco and Dan Brown) and a totally rejection of the two creteria of truth of the Canon which are our own eyes and our feelings for the examination on the issue: where and who is Epicurus on the fresco by Raphael?

The right answer is: well, the bust of Epicurus had not been discovered in the era of Raphael, so that we conclude that Epicurus on that fresco is that stupid little boy with the smirk and wreath on his head.

GUYS, I'M HERE WHY DON'T YOU SEE ME??

“But, those who have not thoroughly taken these things to heart could not rightly study them in themselves, nor have they made their own the reason for observing them”. (Epicurus LTP)
