

The Island Of The Stoics Should Free Tommy Robinson

Post by "Eoghan Gardiner" of May 28, 2018 at 11:32 AM

I have many friends who are Muslim, they are nice people. I also have family who are Muslim as they live in South Africa. I used to be a Muslim when I was a teenager but it's an extremely dangerous religion. I don't agree with Tommy Robinson on a lot, I think at some times he is bigoted for no reason but his points about Islam hit the mark a lot.

It saddens me that people would rather be a good citizen, even to a state like England which blocks sites and filter information than a good person. My personal view when I first read that quote of Epicurus from Seneca is probably the same as yours: "Avoid politics is probably best for a life of pleasure, however if the circumstance arrives such as suppression of free speech, get involved."