Thank you for having me. I've been browsing different sites about Epicureanism, translations & co. since January and frankly came upon this site through Wikipedia. I've found Epicurus' teachings to be very beneficial to me, since I've had big issues with death anxiety and getting into too much petty discourse etc. His philosophy has seemed attractive to me since high school (especially since I've always believed happiness and friendship are what makes life worth living) and upon researching it more carefully I have to say that I agree with almost everything he says.

Glad to be here!
