As for the line numbers i will probably go to my grave never being happy with a numbering system. I've taken lately to using the Loeb numbers and I kept all this designated at under line 62 because Loeb doesn't give another line number until 80.

I hear you! And I didn't mean to be pedantic 😊 Just in case someone was looking at their own copy and thinking "Hmm, why don't I see that on line 62???"
