

The Pocket Epicurean by John Sellars

I did a quick search of Sellars at Academia.edu and didn't see anything specifically on Epicureanism. Lots of articles, papers, book chapters on the minutiae of Stoicism, Aristotle, Hadot, Marcus Aurelius, and Hellenistic philosophy in general with a smattering of Epicurus and Lucretius.

There is a general Google Scholar search.

So his major Research interest lies in Stoicism with a general interest in Hellenistic philosophy. I guess we'll see.

Thanks for the heads-up, Joshua !!!
