

Torquatus' Statement of the Epicurean View Of The Ultimate Good In "On Ends"

Post by "Don" of October 2, 2021 at 1:41 PM

"Constituamus aliquem magnis, multis, perpetuis fruentem..."

I like Reid's.

"enjoyment of pleasures great, numerous and constant"

Yonges is okay there, but I see other issues elsewhere: "enjoying pleasures great, numerous, and perpetual,"

I don't like Parker and Rackham's paraphrase there.