There are probably a lot of semantic kinks in that poem that we could work out if we bothered to do so, but the conclusion for me is basically what I've said in this episode and what I've jotted off there; that there's a charm or agreeableness inherent to pleasure that is lost to me the instant I attempt to analyze or categorize it.

Quote

We insist on precision around here , though it bends the poesy a little out of shape.
