

Recommendations for Happy Living

Post by "Cassius" of November 21, 2021 at 7:36 AM

Quote from Don

we - as members of society- have put in structures and "contracts" to deal with "injustice" to keep ourselves safe.

Yes hopefully so - but whether they are in fact in place is one of those contextual circumstances which has to be considered in projecting what will happen if we take particular actions. The point of writing this being that there is no supernatural automatic enforcement mechanism like the religious majority believes to be the case.