

New Audio Version of Torquatus' Presentation of Epicurean Ethics - Read By Joshua

The only minor issue I hear so far as that at 35:36 it sounds like the word is being read as "undefined" instead of "undefiled."

An easy fix, but let's see if others report other questions before we do a new cut on that section.

I have listened to this several times now and I have to say I think Joshua's version is outstanding!

Edit:

At 4:30 we need to smooth the transition so that it is clear that "And there is a difference..." is a related but separate and new thought.

At 41:57 there is a slight pacing / emphasis issue. The "THEN ONLY" should be set off for emphasis so that it is clear that THEN ONLY (if we trust the senses) will conception and perception be possible.....
