ceaselessly satisfied being

This makes much more sense than immortal being. Could this be a mis interpretation of the greek word too? What was it?

Epicurus: τὸν θεὸν ζῶον ἄφθαρτον καὶ μακάριον

A god is a ἄφθαρτον and μακάριον being (or image depending how you interpret ζῶον)

ἄφθαρτον = incorruptible, undying, eternal, uncorrupted

μακάριον = blessed, completely happy, etc
