

Supernatural and the Senses

Individuals here who feel comfortable would need to branch off and start local geographical groups...like an “Epicurean Fellowship” of New Hampshire, Georgia, Florida, Washington...and of course globally. The local affiliated geographical groups flow back into the home school website (this one...or in other cases the Athens Garden, the SoFE etc.) but individuals have to choose to go out of their way to lead groups in the philosophy. Make their own websites and create their own material (or use what we have here) a teaching curriculum of sorts.
