A Few Days In Athens - Chapter Six

- Chapter 6 Summary – Cleanthes denounces Theon and Epicurus to a Stoic Assembly – Theon Defends.
- Theon rushes to Cleanthes' assistance and announces that he himself is the "traitor" who has visited the Epicurean school.
- Theon defends what he has seen in the Epicurean garden and says there is truth in the Garden.
- Theon accuses Timocrates of having lied the previous day about what goes on in the Garden; Timocrates appears and says Theon is himself lying.
- Epicurus appears and accuses Timocrates of perjury.
