Nate I think this probably should be Thomas PAINE but I didn't change it....

Quote from Nate

Colonial North America versus self-described "Deists" like Thomas Young and Ethan Allen.

Also notable in the time period was Elihu Palmer, who's book "Principles of Nature" I have read in the distant past and found to be pretty good (but that was in my pre-Epicurean days, so no warranty!). Links to his work are here:
