

Nate's "Allegory of the Oasis" Graphic

Post by "Cassius" of June 16, 2022 at 4:08 PM

@Nate I forgot until now to post that this "Oasis" graphic came up in discussion last night on Zoom and the person who brought it up mentioned that they got a lot of use out of it and appreciated it!

We haven't talked about this graphic much lately but we continue to feature it on the front page and I feel sure it continues to be helpful especially to newer people.

So thanks again for creating it!
