

Welcome Waterholic!

Post by “Cassius” of September 18, 2022 at 7:04 AM

Yes this is the right forum Waterholic but I did move you into a thread of your own just like we greet all other registrants. This welcome point should be first in the thread rather than second, but that's one of those frustrations of the modern world -- we do the best we can and the software doesn't allow rearranging the posting times 😊

Thanks for dropping by and we look forward to hearing more from you!
