

We are All Born Hedonists

Looks like an interesting page and I am going to try to go through it. Will be interesting to see if he gives me any pause in my firm commitment not to use the word "hedonism" to describe myself or Epicurus. There are so many aspects to Epicurean philosophy other than "pleasure" that it's probably always going to strike me as too dangerous, and not worth the effort to try to change the definition of the word.
