

Wednesday Night Zoom Gathering Thread (Nov. 2022)

Post by “Cassius” of November 9, 2022 at 2:57 PM

For the time being we are proceeding with regular Wednesday night meetings with more of an "open topic" agenda. If anyone has general questions, comments, or issues they would like to discuss, please feel free to bring them up. We'll generally first see if there are any comments on the most recent Lucretius Today podcast, and then we will move to open discussion. Please join us if you can.
