

Social Media - Fediverse

Post by “Cassius” of November 20, 2022 at 1:42 PM

Recently I retired the "Epicureanworldview.com" fediverse website, and I have now replaced it with a Fediverse account at <https://social.vivaldi.net/@cassiusamicus>

This is a Mastodon-based instance maintained by people behind the Vivaldi internet web browser, which I also use daily and think to be among the best web browsers.

I will update the links and add this location as another place for backup communication which hopefully will not be needed.

See the full list here: <https://cassiusamicus.github.io/linktree/>

PS - the Epicureanworldview.com web site is not going away, and will eventually be replaced with a new open source web initiative - as soon as I decide which one makes sense.
