Hello! Thank you for the welcome. I'm just a young guy who's interested in how to reduce the gloom and live a happier life so I wanted to learn everything about exactly that. When I came across Epicurus, I was immediately enthralled by how much he was ahead of his time. I've read the well known ancient stuff such as Principal Doctrines and Vatican Sayings, really looking forward to reading DeWitt soon. I'm glad to find an active community of likeminded people.
