

Eudoxus - Precursor to Epicurus and More Like Him Than Aristippus?

Post by "Cassius" of May 12, 2023 at 7:53 PM

Quote from Cassius

Any other good that you can think of would be better if pleasure were added to it, and it is only by good that good can be increased.

Of all of the things that are good, happiness is peculiar for not being praised, which may show that it is the crowning good.

Both of these seem very creative! The first makes perfect sense, and the second is --- snarkily convincing??