"...a Greek Man first dared to raise his mortal eyes in opposition and he was first to resist in opposition-whom neither the Reputation of the gods nor Thunderbolts nor the Sky with its menacing roar restrained but even more stirred up in him the sharp power of the mind- so that He desired to be the first to break off the locked bolts of nature's doors." DRN 1.66-71 Sounds very vigorous and active indeed! As you allude to, his output of books and maintenance of a community is a testament to much activity.
