This is the header/title of the section containing the "Vatican Sayings"...

and reads:

Επικουρου προσφωνησις (Epicourou prosphonesis)

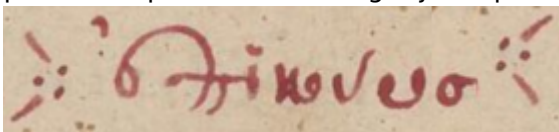

The first word is, of course, "of Epicurus"

The second word means something like "address, dedication, etc."

So it could be even something like "the mode of speaking of Epicurus" or, since his name comes first, "Epicurus's mode of speaking."

Henry George Liddell, Robert Scott, A Greek-English Lexicon, π , προσφύρω , προσφών-ησις

I must say I like that fancy initial Epsilon+pi ligature in Epicurus's name 😊 With a little fancy photomanipulation we can get just Epicurus's name with some flourishes from that title:

Επικουρος (Epicurus)
