Notes:

act as though this life would continue for ever.

XXXI. This aphorism is attributed to Epicurus by the Paris Gnomologium (Usener, fr. 339), but to Metrodorus by Stobaeus, Floril. cxviii. 33. Usener in his notes on the Vatican collection is inclined to give it to Metrodorus, as does Bignone on the ground of its metaphorical expression. For the Epicurean idea of ἀσφάλεια see K. Δ. vii, xiii, xiv.

XXXII. The text of this sentence is corrupted in the MS.
