

Living off the land

Post by “Kalosyni” of August 10, 2023 at 9:48 AM

Thanks Little Rocker ..."blow up your TV" 😄 . Good thing it was "throw away your papers" and not your books! Also liked the line "try to find Jesus on your own". The equivalent might be find Epicurus on your own 🤔 (It's not possible to start a meet-up group unless you are in a big enough city).

But the true reality of living out in the country these days is it can be hard to (or expensive) to get internet, or good quality internet. (Starlink can be spotty and slow).

Although, living out in the country could include "blowing up your internet" ...but I couldn't live without it!