Quote from Joshua

Ha! We should communicate better, that was about as far as I get in my transcription on Saturday.

Thinking about this further, we really should start at the beginning for the sake of continuity, but I don't think there's an awful lot that will occupy us for very long other than the sort of background points you are making.

And we have to decide what if anything to read, and if we do read anything, I suspect we should start with section V
