And we have to decide what if anything to read, and if we do read anything, I suspect we should start with section V

That's a good question. Maybe throw it open to the forum? I don't have a strong opinion either way.

Does anyone who listens to the podcast have an opinion as to whether we should read the section of text before we start the discussion, as we did before DeWitt? Or should we just quote as needed, as we have been doing recently?
