

Frederick the Great's Statue Incorporating Lucretius Motif

Post by “Daniel” of March 25, 2019 at 10:25 AM

“Apollo” (François Sigisbert Adam), Marble Hall of Sanssouci Palace:

index.php?t=objekt&oges=7488&cacheLoaded=true

The inscription „Te Sociam Studeo Scribundis Versibus Esse, Quos Ego De Rerum Natura Pangere Conor“ is rendered in English as “Thee do I crave co-partner in that verse which I presume on Nature to compose”.

In front of Apollo there is a Venus Urania, by the same author:

index.php?t=objekt&oges=7489&cacheLoaded=true