

Welcome SanAntonioGarden!

Post by “Cassius” of January 21, 2024 at 5:07 PM

What part of modern physics do you have in mind as a problem? In general, the changes in understanding of how nature works do not change the conclusion that nature has no gods over her, or that there is no life after death, or that there are no absolute ideal forms to which we need to conform our conduct.