

Thoughts and Discussion on Organizing Epicurean Community

Post by “Pacatus” of February 6, 2024 at 3:28 PM

I went back to this old thread, which Cassius had recommended to me way back (well, “way back” for me 😊). Discussion of the Society of Epicurus' 20 Tenets of 12/21/19

The discussion is wide-ranging, but I think there is a lot of food-for-thought on what criteria one “must” accept to be called “an Epicurean” – and by whom? I want to disassociate my suggestions from anything like that. I especially appreciated Elayne’s and Elli’s and Cassius’ comments in that thread. (I’ve always been particularly attracted by Elayne’s takes. What happened to her?)

EDIT: Oh! I see that Cassius has already linked that thread. 😊
