1) Create a "sister-site" which gives a quick overview. We already have NewEpicurean.com...however...

...it would be nice to have something a bit more streamlined like a regular website which is geared toward modern times and is focused on practical aspects of applying Epicurean philosophy.

Besides <https://epicureanfriends.com> there are a number of sites with Epicurean resources:

- <https://epicurus.net>
- <https://www.epicswerve.com>
- <https://epicurus.today>
- http://wiki.epicurism.info/Main_Page/
- <https://societyofepicurus.com>
