Philo I will be glad to do so as the thoughts occur to me. I also hope others will do so. Unfortunately I am so pressed for time that I am not able to launch into any particular item at the moment, but I do agree that each of the points you have raised is a critical one for discussion. You've obviously put a lot of time and thought into this document, and doing this kind of thing is a great exercise for anyone.

I haven't checked back but did you respond to my "Welcome" post about your background and interest in Epicurus? I don't ask those questions to pry, and I don't want you to divulge any personal information, but I think it is very helpful to discussion if we know something about "where a person has been" as an indication of "where they are now" and "where they are going." 😊
