

Epicurean versus deceptive (“modern”) Stoic decision making

Post by “Julia” of August 10, 2024 at 7:05 AM

Before I came across Epicurean philosophy, I found this flow chart online. Sometimes, when I'm confused, I now find myself circling back to a similar basic structure of thought, albeit with the contents rather different, so I took it upon myself to professionally and artfully 😊 tweak the original chart to match my current thinking. Feedback and comments welcome 😊
