

The "meaning crisis" trend. How do you answer it as an Epicurean philosopher?

If someone wants a meaning for one's life, they are free to create it.

I thought about meaning of life during adolescence and the subsequent years because I read and heard from others about it but never felt that need for a meaning of life, so for me personally, there is no such crisis. However, as Nietzsche anticipated, the meaning crisis might be relevant for many people.
