

To Whom Was Epicurus' Last Letter Addressed?

Quote from Eikadistes

Then again, upon review, Epicurus directly explains that is is writing the letter to ὅμῖν (plural pronoun in the accusative) meaning "to y'all", so perhaps the letter was to a non-present group (the Garden in Lampsakos vis-a-vis Idomeneus?) It seems unlikely he would have been writing to "y'all" if that group were in his presence, or just sitting in another room, or down the street.

Unless it was literally his last will and testament addresses to "the Garden" with Hermarchus the incoming leader.
